

Conferences and Events

Bring your corporate conferences to life with the professional and creatively skilled service of Silvercube actors and facilitators.

'Silvercube wrote and performed a piece of Forum theatre for us. The audience loved it, which meant that they were totally engaged with the learning that followed. I thoroughly recommend using Silvercube to launch your corporate event.'

-Ruth Grant, Internal Communications Manager at BT Operate

Your staff will:

- Be entertained and inspired by the bespoke nature of the conference, meaning that they are focussed and engaged.
- Watch an humorous piece of theatre which holds a mirror up to the organisation.
- Engage with Silvercube actors on stage.
- Experience relevant dramatisations inspired by their input.

Benefits:

- Delegates are engaged from the beginning of the day.
- The conference begins with maximum impact.
- Highly interactive and innovative, which means staff are more receptive to learning.
- Visual, Auditory and Kinesthetic which means it will have great impact for all delegates.
- Prompts discussion and interaction from delegates.

When to use Conferences and Events:

- Your annual staff conference
- An international communications event
- A product launch
- To raise awareness of a new directive within your company
- When putting a large number of delegates through a training day to create synergy within the group.

How we do it:

We start by:

- Finding out how your organisation works- the challenges, goals, behaviours and culture.
- What you want to achieve from the conference.

We will then design a selection of the following, dependent on your requirements:

- Drama inspired games
- Forum theatre
- Sketches
- Invisible Theatre

The Investment

Add creativity and impact to your conference with Silvercube from as little as £1000