Silvercube Actors-Facilitators

In addition to giving delegates a practical learning experience, Silvercube Actor-Facilitators provide support to the trainer by facilitating break-out groups, forum discussions and drama inspired games and exercises.

Your Delegates Will:

- Benefit from a facilitated skills practice session with a professional actor.
- Get emotional and technical feedback
- Benefit from stop/starting the conversation and rewinding to a specific learning point
- Learn communication skills through drama based exercises

Which Means:

- Staff are able to practice challenging conversations in a safe secure environment, supported by facilitated discussion.
- Staff are aware of their own strengths and development areas
- Staff are confident when preparing to tackle important issues at work
- Observers are fully integrated into the discussions
- Your trainer is free to observe the action and draw out specific learning points for the delegate.

When to use Silvercube Actor-Facilitators:

- When you want your delegates to learn through experiential techniques
- When you want to add impact to your training day
- When you have 1 trainer and you want to break out into smaller groups

How we do it:

- Silvercube actor-facilitators slot into your training day providing your delegates with an opportunity to practice the skills they have learnt and discover new and exciting practical drama based techniques
- Silvercube actor-facilitators can be briefed ahead of the training day or can adapt quickly to bespoke requirements
- We will discuss your requirements to establish the level of involvement you want from our team
